Beverly Presbyterian Church 121 Warren St. East, Edgewater Park, NJ 08010

Congratulations to Gaige Buckley! His soccer team, the Cinnaminson Titans, took first place for the fall season in their division. The team also won the Cinnaminson Thanksgiving Tournament in the U8 division. He was excited to score a goal, particularly because he plays defense!

Prayers and best wishes to Caidan Buckley, son of Mason and Lauren, as he is embarking on a new phase of his life. He will be moving to Manchester TN on 12/22 to be near his girlfriend. A job and his own housing will be his first goals. We will miss him immensely but time marches on.

The Beverly Presbyterian Church provides two outstanding opportunities for you to gather with other Christians for worshipping and praising God. A traditional worship service with hymns of praise is held every SUNDAY AT 10:00 AM. On THURSDAY NIGHTS AT 6:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall, Tom and Joanne DiLeo lead us with praise songs and in a time of prayer and sharing. God is present at these gatherings and in every minute of your day, through the good and the bad. The Praise & Prayer service has an open forum which allows you to share those times. You will leave feeling encouraged, loved and uplifted.

*God created each person with an inner need for unconditional love.
The love of God is unfathomable.
As a child of God, you can never be lost from His love.
Nothing you can do will make God love you more.
Nothing you can do will make God love you less.
He loves you without merit;
He loves you without measure.*

AED—LIFE SAVING DEVICE

There's a new addition to the BPC facility hanging in the main hall near the office. Virtua Medical donated an AED (Automated External Defibrillator). You and this device can save a life. Once engaged the AED will instruct you with every step of the process.

QUITE A WEEKEND

Fellowship Hall was our happy place on the first week-end of December.

It started with our family movie night, on Saturday, December 2, which was coordinated with the Haaf Foundation gingerbread house event. The room was packed with happy, smiling people, young and old, all busy putting together little Christmas gingerbread houses or watching the 1989 classic movie "Prancer". Then on Sunday, December 3, we were back taking part in a potluck Christmas luncheon. It was a scrumptious event with Santa making an early visit, as well. And let's not forget, Sunday was the lighting of the first advent candle, a tradition not to be overlooked! If you were in church on Sunday, you also took part in communion in remembrance of our Lord's last supper. All in all, quite a weekend!!!!

NOVEMBER 11, WORK DAY

Many hands make light work!
There were 34 hands put to work accomplishing much needed work to prepare the Manse for the next occupants.

At the very heart and foundation of all God's dealings with us,
however dark and mysterious they may be,
we must dare to believe in and assert the infinite,
unmerited, and unchanging love of God.

A MORNING OF MUSIC TO THE MINISTRY OF GOD TO SERVE HIM!

On Sunday, December 17th, several ensembles performed at the Beverly Presbyterian Church. The service was absolutely wonderful. If you missed the service or would like to see it again, go to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GxEkzhIwKnY>, or go to Youtube.com and search "Beverly Presbyterian Church".

The first performance was by the Chancel Choir singing "Jesus, Jesus, Rest Your Head" with Tom Birch, soloist and then "Go Tell it Where I Send Thee".

SAUSAGE EGG & BISCUIT CASSEROLE

Ingredients:

1 lb.	breakfast sausage-ground (Jimmy Dean sausage)	½ cup	Milk
½	medium onion minced	6 oz.	Colby & Monterey Jack Cheese shredded
1 clove	garlic minced	6 oz.	Mozzarella cheese shredded
½	red pepper minced	½ tsp.	Italian seasoning
8	Extra large or Jumbo eggs		Salt & Pepper to taste
		1 pkg.	Buttermilk Biscuits (Pillsbury) cut into 8 pieces, all but 1. Save it for the top.

Start with a large baking dish (approx. 9 x 12). Spray with vegetable oil (Pam). Set oven for 350 degrees. Salt and Pepper lightly each step. Place a small amount of oil in a fry pan. Cook the crumbled sausage until pink is gone only about 5 minutes (don't brown it). Remove from pan and save enough fat to sauté the onions & red pepper then add garlic for just a minute. Add veggies to the sausage in a bowl. In a separate bowl whisk the eggs, milk and seasoning. Cover the bottom of the baking dish with the pieces of biscuits. Sprinkle the sausage over the biscuits then pour egg mixture over the sausage, sprinkle the cheeses over the egg mixture. I like to put the 1 whole biscuit in the center. But that's up to you. At this point you can bake in a 350 degree oven for 30-40 minutes. You have to check it. The center should be tested with a knife. The knife should be dry when you pull it out.

OR: Here's the neat part. Cover with foil. You can put the whole dish together the night before or let it sit in the refrigerator for at least 8 hours then bake. Also, you can put your favorite veggies in or even mushrooms or just the cheese, whatever you prefer. ENJOY!

SMILES FROM THE BIBLE—contributed by Carol Esposito

What do they call pastors in Germany?

German Shepherds

Who was the greatest financier in the Bible?

Noah. He was floating his stock while everyone else was in liquidation.

Who was the greatest female financier in the Bible?

Pharaoh's daughter. She went down to the bank of the Nile and drew out a little prophet.

What kind of motor vehicles are in the Bible?

Jehovah drove Adam and Eve out of the Garden in a Fury.

David's Triumph was heard throughout the land.

Also, probably a Honda, because the apostles were all in one Accord.

Who was the greatest comedian in the Bible?

Samson. He brought the house down.

FROM YOUR (INTERIM) PASTOR...

You will regularly hear that Christmas is for children. Indeed it is regularly our children and grandchildren who spontaneously and enthusiastically make the day special! On Christmas morning, even though they are on vacation from school and can sleep in, it is difficult to keep the kids in bed. They are anxious to see what Santa has brought them. And when they see the stache under the tree which is intended for them, they quickly tear into the presents. Any wrapping quickly gets torn away as kids excitedly tear into whatever Santa has brought them.

As we begin another new year, this one 2024, God will once again present us with a new gift of time. Like a Christmas present many will tear into the new year with gusto and bravado. It's a time to celebrate, though often the celebration seems misguided. It fails to demonstrate true appreciation for the new gift that God is setting before us.

I hope that you (and I) will truly appreciate the new year with which God is presenting us. Unwrap it carefully, and likely slowly, in order to savor and appreciate that with which we are being blessed. Savor the moments, the time, that God is granting you. That, though, is one of those things which we regularly fail to do, at least as completely as we might or should.

It was years ago that the chaplain with whom I completed a unit of CPE, i.e. clinical pastoral education, introduced me to a woman who was terminally ill. A young mother of two with a husband who was able to provide substantially for her and their kids; they had nothing but good things to anticipate. Then, though, she was stricken with breast cancer. Though doctors had been able to arrest the breast cancer, still it was anticipated that the cancer would metastasize to her brain. The prognosis was dim.

Life itself became difficult for this woman. In particular she spoke of attending social gatherings with her husband where the conversations regularly turned to what everyone was anticipating doing in the upcoming days, months, even years. The conversations were difficult for this woman, though, because she couldn't count on days, months or years. The cancer could erupt within her brain at any time—and her days were numbered.

Though life was still difficult and challenging for this woman, she had discovered a formula which helped her get through. She would take “5 at a time,” i.e. whenever she was getting down, she would think of something meaningful and rewarding she could do in the next five minutes—and she would do it. What could she do to make life better for her daughters or her husband in the next five minutes. It didn't need to be something grandiose; something simple would work. She found that doing things “five at a time” would give her a sense of accomplishment and fulfillment.

It is easy to make the mistake of trying to plan too far in advance along with focusing too much on the distant future. Savor the moment(s). Utilize the time that God is giving you to address something right in front of you. Ask yourself what you can do in the next five minutes to exemplify and enact the Spirit of Christ Jesus our Lord. You will then find yourself feeling more satisfaction and accomplishment as you become a faithful steward of the time God is presenting you. May we all enjoy a more blessed 2024 as we seek to mirror the thoughts and actions of Jesus “five at a time.”

In Christ,
Pastor Keith

GOD'S UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

God's love is constant, it doesn't fluctuate with the passing times and seasons. We read in Jeremiah 31:3, "I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with loving-kindness." God's love is absolute. According to Webster's dictionary, that means

1) perfect; complete, 2) pure, 3) not limited, 4) positive, 5) real and 6) not relative.

1 John 4:16 affirms that "God is love" and 1 John 4:19 that "We love because he first loved us." It is His very nature to love.

God's acceptance, love, approval and favor are not based on our performance. (Thank the LORD !!) It's all about His grace and unmerited favor. Ephesians 1:6, KJV, "To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved." He made us accepted. If it was based on our performance that would make it about us, but the reality is it's about His Grace and that makes it all about Him.

Romans 5:8 tells us, "But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." And Romans 5:6, in part, "when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly." Ephesians 2:8 & 9 echoes the same message, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith –and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God- not by works, so that no one can boast." Why would we need the Holy Spirit if it was based on our own performance. 1 Corinthians 2:12, "We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us."

The unconditional love of God means there are no strings attached and that you don't have to earn it. This is really good news because if you don't earn it, then you can't lose it. Just like God's favor, it is not earned, it is bestowed. People in this broken world will so subtly insist that we please them in order to gain their approval and acceptance. We don't need to perform for God. He doesn't place that heavy burden on our backs. God's love is a freeing love – not one that brings you into bondage, the bondage of having to perform.

It is so easy for us to equate the fallen, fallible and fickle attributes of our fellowmen/ women to God. This is why we need to read the Bible and spend time alone with God and pray for insight thru the power of the Holy Spirit to gain the correct understanding of the nature and character of God. Then we will also discover our true value and worth to Him. The Holy Spirit will reveal it to you. Meditation will open the door to revelation and revelation will bring liberation. There is no doubt, God loves you unconditionally, the Bible tells you so.

Bits & Pieces

Gwen Reed

God is still writing your story.
Quit trying to steal the pen.
Trust the Author

Sometimes you have to eat your words,
Chew your ego,
Swallow your pride and except your mistakes.
It's not giving up, it's called Growing Up.

Every storm runs out of rain.
Maya Angelou

LIFE IS SHORT, LOVE IT.
LOVE IS RARE, GRAB IT
ANGER IS BAD, DUMP IT
FEAR IS AWFUL, FACE IT.
MEMORIES ARE SWEET,
CHERISH THEM!

*Gentleness doesn't mean you're not strong,
It simply means your strength doesn't hurt others!*

'Twas the Month After Christmas

'Twas the month after Christmas and all through the house
Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.
The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I'd taste,
And all the holiday parties have gone to my waist.

When I got on the scales there arose such a number!
When I walked to the store (less a walk than a lumber),
I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared;
The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rare.

The wine and the rum balls, the bread and the cheese
And the way I'd never said, "No thank you, please."
As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt
And prepared once again to do battle with dirt—

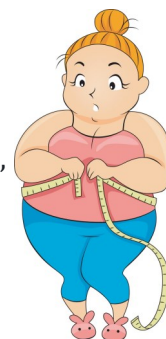

I said to myself, as I only can
"You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"
So—away with the last of the sour cream dip
Get rid of the fruit cake, every cracker and chip

Every last bit of food that I like must be banished
Till all the additional ounces have vanished.
I won't have a cookie—not even a lick.
I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.

I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,
I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.
I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore—
But isn't that what January is for?

Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.
Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!
